

GC VIP Party Events Waiver and Release

We're excited to have you enjoy the Video Booth Services provided by GC VIP Party Events! While we take every care to ensure a fun and enjoyable experience, we do need let you know about some potential risks involved.

(a) The Equipment may involve some risks of personal injury. These include, but are not limited to, falls from the platform, collisions with the rotating arm, and potential exposure to flashing lights, which may trigger epilepsy in susceptible individuals. Other risks may arise from the actions or negligence of other users.

(b) Participants must be aware of and understand all risks involved in using the Equipment before participating.

(c) I acknowledge and understand that I choose to use the Equipment voluntarily and at my own risk, having full knowledge of the general and specific risks mentioned above.

(d) If signing this document as a parent, guardian, or responsible person for a participant, I confirm that I have explained to them the risks associated with the Equipment provided by GC VIP Party Events.

(e) By signing this document, I acknowledge and accept this as a formal "risk warning" as required under relevant legislation, including Sections 13–19 of the Civil Liability Act 2003 (QLD).

(f) By signing this document, I release GC VIP Party Events, its staff, and agents from any claims or liabilities arising from injury, illness, loss, or damages resulting from my participation, except where caused by the negligence of GC VIP Party Events or its agents.

(g) By signing this document, I confirm:

1. GC VIP Party Events is permitted to provide me with the Video Booth Services based on my acceptance of the risks outlined.
2. This document may be relied upon by GC VIP Party Events in any legal proceedings initiated by myself, my heirs, or my representatives.
